

AURELIUS appoints Will Stamp as Principal to the UK deal team

Appointment will augment AURELIUS' investment activities in the special situations space

London, 11 January, 2015 – AURELIUS Group (ISIN DE000A0JK2A8) (“AURELIUS”), the mid-market pan-European Investor focused on value creation through operational improvement, has appointed Will Stamp as a Principal in the UK office with immediate effect.

Will has extensive experience in the corporate carve-out and turnaround sectors across Europe. He was previously a Senior Investment Manager at Hilco Capital where he was involved in corporate investments across a range of sectors including the acquisitions of Habitat from Ikea Group and Allied Carpets from Tapis Saint-Maclou.

Will began his career in the Restructuring team at KPMG where he qualified as a Chartered Accountant.

Tristan Nagler, Managing Director of AURELIUS in the UK commented:

“Will’s knowledge and experience in the corporate carve-out and turnaround space will enable AURELIUS to undertake more deals across the UK market. The UK office has grown significantly over the last year and I look forward to building on recent successes which include investments in Scholl Footwear and ECO Plastics.”

Will Stamp, Principal of AURELIUS in the UK added:

“This is an exciting time to join AURELIUS, with a healthy pipeline of deals in the corporate carve-out and turnaround market. I am looking forward to working with the team, which has extensive capabilities improving businesses both operationally as well as financially. I am looking to identify compelling new investment opportunities and execute deals across the UK market.”
